THE GLOW OF THE BRIGHT FUTURE REFLECTED IN BUSINESS LIFE OF TOWN

With News of Certain Development Plans of Prominent Men Soon to Be Announced, Comes Renewed Confidence In future of Hendersonville and Henderson County, While Business Is Now better Than During Many Years Past.

"Business in this county," said a well known merchant this morning, "is better now than during any fall for years past. The statements of the town's four banks bear me out in this. There is going to be less money leave Henderson county this winter than at any time during its history. The crops are good and the farmers are meeting their obligations. In addition to all this I see the Daily Herald has an inside tip about certain plans about to be consumated here. The paper is correct when it speaks of the importance of these plans upon the future of Hendersonville. With present conditions so satisfactory here, and these well considered plans of capitalists about to be consumated, I see only a bright glow ahead in the road along which Hendersonville is traveling. We have many things to be thankful for in this city, not the least being that the future of the town is assured."

Special Term Court.

There will be a special term of court, criminal, held here December 19 to 24, to try the two murder cases and such others as may be ready at that time. Judge Long, who is holding court here now, will preside at the special term. Following is the jury list: S. J. Harris, J. P. Anders, T. D. Seagle, O. G. Morgan, B. P. McCrory, J. S. Whitaker, J. C. Brown, William M. Guice, J. B. Newman, Henry C. Jones, J. H. Beck, Harvy McKillop, J. B. F. Pace, H. M. Roberts, C. G. Revis, M. J. Francis, A. C. Sexton, J. B. Middleton, J. C. Dalton, B. S. Smith, G. N. Sentell, H. R. Holden, Jasper Williams, F. M. Dixon, J. A. Clark, Alfred Broyles, W. P. Garren, J. A. Maxwell, J. Mingus Pace, James Stepp, E. L. Anders, C. R. Whitaker, H. P. Dunkin, J. B. Lyda, A. M. Ruth, Winston Edney.

Missed An Issue.

The Daily Herald missed an issue Monday. A sudden and insistent demand that the brief in the case of H. M. Roberts and John J. Baldwin be ready to send to the supreme court at Raleigh by Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock, was the cause. The entire brief was printed and delivered within twenty-four hours, and as it was the largest brief ever printed in Hendersonville, nearly 150 pages, we would remark that this was going some. It took all night to run it out, most of the Herald force working a straight fifty hours. The current was kept on all night, that the work might not be interrupted. Had the brief not reached Raleigh in time the consequences might have been serious for many—including this print shop. As it was it meant a record breaking piece of printing.

LOST—One spotted cow, black steer and red heifer got out of Grade Dermid's pasture in past week. Return or notify J. A. Rusher & Son for reward.

The Baptist Convention.

Mr. Brownlow Jackson, the chairman of the entertainment committee having the care of the five or six hundred messengers for the coming state Baptist convention in charge, has a number of assistants who are busy people these days making the necessary arrangements for the proper care of the coming host. It will be remembered that the late Rev. G. S. Jones was largely instrumental in securing this meeting of representative North Carolina people for Hendersonville, and one may imagine that saintly gentleman urging the people of this town to throw wide their doors for the entertainment of the messengers of this great denomination who will honor the town with their presence on December sixth.

Wants The Daily.

Mr. Will J. Case, who is now in Florida, writes as follows: "If the interesting Daily Herald continues to make its appearance through the winter months, as I hope it may, you will please send it to me at Daytona, Fla. I will inform the people in the low lands of Florida that I left behind me a beautiful mountain city of about 2,853 population—that is, until the census man tells us better."

Dunham's Advertisement.

The Hustler takes a peculiar pleasure in drawing the attention of its readers to the announcement of Dunham's Music House, which appears in this issue. This reputable firm is one of the best known in Asheville, or in the western part of the state, for that matter, and is worthy of the utmost confidence of the readers of this paper. You will derive both pleasure and profit from reading this advertisement, and in your dealings with Mr. Dunham you are assured of a square deal. This is no paid reading notice either.

Mr. F. S. Thomas is slowly recovering from an attack of the gripe.

Crippen Pays Penalty.

London, Nov. 23.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen today paid the penalty for murdering his wife, Belle Elmore, the actress, within a few minutes before the stroke of nine.

London, Nov. 22.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen will be hanged at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. This announcement was made today and with it passed any hope that the condemned man may have had of an 11th-hour delay.

The gruesome incident to the preparation in the office of the executor have been working and the usual caution of British criminal procedure taken to guard against any hitch at the last moment. From the time that his wife, Belle Elmore, the actress, disappeared, up to the day of his conviction, public sentiment against Crippen grew stronger, but in his last hours the American is not without sympathy.

Clara Ethel Leneve, the woman for whom the crown alleged Crippen killed his wife, has continued her visits to the prisoner's cell and there are others who shake their heads and declare that they would never convict a man on circumstantial evidence.

Democrats 227 Against Only 163 Republicans.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The Democratic representation in the next house will be 227 as against 163 Republicans and 1 Socialist, according to the roster of the house published today. These figures give the democrats a majority of 63 and a plurality of 61.

Up to 3 o'clock today, Judge Long had not yet decided whether or not there would be any court tomorrow. The banks are closed for the day and most of the stores from ten to five in the afternoon.

There will be the usual Thanksgiving service held at St. James Episcopal church tomorrow morning, at 10:30. The services will be conducted by the rector, Rev. R. N. Willcox. The special offering will be for the orphanage at Thomasville.

Mr. A. A. Gates came up from Greenville today, and talked interestingly of his plans for the big Hotel Gates next season. That fine hotel will be thoroughly renovated, repainted, etc., before it is opened to the tourists who are going to come to Hendersonville next year. Mr. Gates expects to open for the season about the first of June.

The next teachers meeting, to be held on November 26, to be addressed by Dr. Ferrell, of the State Board of Health and others, promises to be very largely attended. The teachers of the county are compelled to attend these meetings, and a most cordial invitation to all others is extended.

The Hendersonville Mercantile Company has an announcement in this paper of interest. This company's new fall suits are just as attractive in design and workmanship as may be found anywhere in the state. The prices, it is needless to state are more attractive. Spend your money in Hendersonville.

Sympathy!

If the company which furnishes The Hendersonville Herald with power does not do better we shall be forced to reprimand it severely. We do not appreciate being deprived of this lively contemporary, as has happened several times during the past few weeks. —Charlotte Observer.

Thanksgiving Service.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and two Baptist churches of this city, will unite in a Thanksgiving service at 11 a. m., tomorrow at the Skating Rink next to the court house, where the Cates Union meetings are now being held. Rev. K. W. Cawthon will preach. An offering for the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist orphanages will be received.

Everybody cordially invited to attend.

The Gibbs-Cathey Suit.

After hearing most of the people of Henderson county testify in the case, the jury in the Gibbs-Cathey case rendered a verdict for $75 and the costs, amounting to about $150, in favor of the plaintiff, Mr. Gibbs. It took almost three days to hear the evidence. Mr. Gibbs sued Mr. Cathey for $10,000 for assault.

The Best One Yet to be Heard From.

Mr. R. P. Freeman has killed one hog weighing 470 pounds, was 11 months old, also one pig seven months old which weighed 314 pounds, and Mr. Freeman says the best one is yet to be heard from. It will be interesting to know what the best one will do with so excellent a record as this already established.

NOTICE.

There will be a call meeting of the Board of Road Supervisors of Hendersonville township to meet at the Court House on the first Monday in December, being the 5th day, at 11 o'clock a. m., as we have not had a meeting the first Monday in November.

J. P. PATTON,

Chairman.

J. D. Dermid, Sec'y.

Resolutions.

Inasmuch as it has pleased God to remove from the home of our esteemed brother, Z. C. Byers, his beloved infant, Theodore, therefore be it resolved

First, That we the members of Tahkeostee Lodge No. 185 tender the bereaved family in these dark hours of sadness and gloom, our most sincere heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to our Heavenly Father, who knows and does all things well.

Second, That a copy of these resolutions be mailed the bereaved family, a copy spread on the minutes of our Lodge, and copy mailed Hendersonville papers for publication.

HENDERSON COUNTY IS THANKFUL

Let us be thankful—not only because.
Since last our universal thanks were told
We have grown greater in the world's applause,
And fortune's newer smiles surpass the old—

But thankful for all things that come as alms
From out the open hand of Providence:—
The winter clouds and storms—the summer calms—
The sleepless dread—the drowse of indolence.
Thanksgiving.

AW, BE THANKFUL!

Be thankful you are alive.
Be thankful there are big things going to happen here soon.
Be thankful Teddy the Talker is quiet.

Be thankful—the sun shines.
Be thankful the election is over.
Be thankful the country is saved once more.

Be thankful the census man still holds us in doubt. Suppose he says less than five thousand?

Be thankful you are reading the Daily Herald—the only daily paper of any prominence in Hendersonville.

Be thankful you live in Hendersonville, the fastest growing town in the South. Suppose you lived in—oh, well, you know where.

Be thankful if you eat turk on the right day for eating it, but don't let your thankfulness make you forget the less fortunate than you. Send a basket from your bountiful table to some deserving family. Preferably a family with a lot of hungry children.

Remember the orphans tomorrow.

Stores Close Tomorrow.

All members of the Retail Merchants Association will close their stores tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, from ten in the morning to five in the afternoon. The Daily Herald will not close, however. This print shop has lost so much time recently that it has to keep a-go-in', holidays or no holidays. Also, Thanksgiving is a most acceptable time of the year to pay subscription dues.

Mr. J. Williams, the "dependable merchant," has an advertisement in this paper. Read it. You know "Ott" Williams. What he says he means. Spend your money in Hendersonville.

FROM RALEIGH

Today there left Raleigh to attend the annual session of the Southern States Association of commissioners of Agriculture and Agricultural Workers in session this week at Atlanta, Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, State Chemist B. W. Kilgore and Director of Farmers Institutions T. B. Parker who will take an active part in the deliberations of the association which wields a powerful influence in the furtherance of the agricultural interests of the South.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 22.—Secretary R. D. W. Connor, of the North Carolina Historical Commission, Dr. W. K. Boyd, of Trinity College, and Dr. William E. Dodd, distinguished North Carolinian now with the University of North Carolina, are to be among those who read papers in connection with the program for the Twenty-sixth annual meeting of the American Historical Association to be held in Indianapolis December 27 to 30. Historical Work in North Carolina, particularly the work of the North Carolina Historical Commission, will be the theme of Mr. Connor's paper. Dr. Boyd is to treat "North Carolina on the Eve of Secession." And Dr. Dowd is to discourse on "The Waning Power of the South in the North West, 1856 to 1860."

It is interesting in this connection that the printed proceedings of the Fifth Annual Conference of Historical Societies recently held in Washington says of the work of the North Carolina Historical Commission: "Of notable changes of administration of historical interests perhaps the most significant are the reports from North Carolina, where it is stated that there is a marked increase in historical interest."
